

Freedom House Male Halfway House

Admission Criteria

1. Freedom House provides long-term treatment in a halfway house setting. Therefore the need for further treatment is the first requirement for admission.
2. Freedom House requires a willingness on the part of the referral to commit to long-term treatment (approximately nine months).
3. Freedom House requires the referral to be a minimum of at least 18 years of age and not attending high school.
4. Freedom House requires referrals to secure and maintain full time employment during their stay. Therefore, referrals must be ready, willing, and able to work.
5. Freedom House requires referrals to secure PPD testing, physical exams, and other medical testing and/or exams that may be added as a result of the pre-admission screening interview prior to admission.
6. Freedom House evaluates referrals who are on drug therapy to stabilize moods or behavior on a case-by-case basis.
7. Freedom House requires referrals to pay for their entire medical and other health needs during their stay.
8. Freedom House does not accept referrals that have on-going medical problems that will detract from the referrals' ability to participate fully in the program.
9. Freedom House requires referrals to submit to a telephone screen interview, and whatever conditions may be placed upon acceptance.
10. Freedom House does not accept persons convicted of certain crimes including certain violent offenses, arson, and sex offenses (other than Tier 1, which may be accepted).
11. Freedom House requires referrals to cut their hair short and be clean shaven.
12. Freedom house referrals must meet level 3.1, under the ASAM placement criteria.
